It is with great pleasure that I congratulate you on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the founding of your College. You have established the College as a world leader in pharmaceutical research and education and have much to be proud of. Having visited your College I am well aware of the high quality of the graduate and undergraduate programs that you provide and the research efforts that are being conducted. Your College motto of "seeking truth and innovation" is good guidance for all colleges of pharmacy.
